trustees present, each member of the Board of Trustees being entitled to cast one vote. Vacancies among the Trustees may be filled by appointments made by the remaining members of the Board.

ARTICLE 7. The Board of Trustees shall meet at such times and places as the President may direct, or upon the call of the Secretary signed at the request of three or more members of the Board. They shall direct all the affairs of the Association, and appoint such Agents and other officers as may be necessary to carry on the business for which the Association was organized.

They may appoint committees or designate one or more of their own body, their Agents or other officers to do and perform such things as the Trustees may deem necessary, and the acts of such Trustees, Agents or officers, shall be valid and binding upon the Association.

ARTICLE 8. Officers, President. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the members and of the Board of Trustees, to sign all contracts or other instruments binding the Association, and to generally supervise the business interests of the Association.

Vice-President. It shall be the duty of the Vice-President to perform the duties of the President whenever the latter shall be absent or incapacitated and the acts so performed shall be as valid and binding upon the Association as if performed by the President in person.

Treasurer. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to countersign all contracts or instruments binding the Association; to receipt for and take charge of all moneys paid into the Association, and safely keep all moneys, instruments of value and evidences of property belonging to the Association. He shall keep accounts of all financial transactions and make annual statements of the same, to be kept in the office or headquarters of the Association for the benefit of the members. He shall exhibit his books, accounts, vouchers and evidences of property whenever required to do so at any meeting of the members or of the Board of Trustees.

Auditor. The Auditor shall examine the books or accounts of the Treasurer annually, and if he shall find the same correct, being properly vouched and balances accounted for, and the evidences of property shown, he shall give the Treasurer his certificate of satisfaction which shall be entered on the Secretary's book of Record.

Secretary. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Trustees and of the meetings of the members and enter the same in his book of record; he shall give notice of the annual meetings and all other meetings of the members and Board of Trustees. He shall sign all instruments requiring his official signature, and conduct the correspondence of the Association, and perform such other duties as may be designated by the Board of Trustees or the members of the Association at any regular or special meetings of the same.

ARTICLE 9. These By-laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the members, as hereinbefore provided for, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all the members voting at such meeting, provided that notice in writing of such amendments or alterations shall have been given to the Secretary at least one month before the date of such meeting.

The California Feed Company have received a large invoice of goods by the S. G. Wilder. They quote the lowest prices, and the finest qualities in all the lines, and give full weight. Amongst the lot are to be found, hay, oats, rolled barley, bran, corn, cracked corn, oil-cake, etc. Everything is of the freshest, and if you want to get the best and cheapest the California Feed Co. will hear from you.

Our New Goods are now open. Latest Novelties, Worsteds Dress Goods, Silks, Serges, Jet Trimmings, etc., at N. S. Sachs'.
